

Dubrovnik-Neretva, Croatia

About the region

“Dubrovnik-Neretva faces depopulation, decline in industrial production, lack of uniformly available services, lack of digital skills and lack of reliable and fast internet coverage. It is geographically dispersed, lacking in sound transport connections, local population faces challenges that result in needs not being addressed to the proper level - in terms of healthcare, education, lack of transport options.

Here the dRural platform has strengthened four arenas: health and social care, transport and mobility, local food systems and tourism.”
